

Fifth Annual Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award Nomination/Application Process

In the memory of Gerry D. Howell, long-time A+ Schools executive director and the inspiration behind the creative teaching and learning of countless educators, administrators and students across North Carolina, A+ Schools announces the sixth annual Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award. To honor her legacy, A+ Schools of North Carolina will select one dedicated A+ educator who best exemplifies the values of A+ Schools and its philosophies.

A great A+ educator:

- challenges, motivates and inspires students by supporting a learning environment that is art-filled, creative, relevant, engaging and reflective.
- is respected by peers, parents and students.
- is caring and creative, seeking to enrich the lives of all students.
- demonstrates a commitment to the arts, a collaborative spirit, leadership and flexibility.
- has a dedication to life-long learning.

Who is eligible?

Pre-K through 12th grade classroom teachers, arts educators, special area teachers, special needs teachers, coordinators and administrators in active North Carolina A+ schools are eligible. Educators may be self-nominated or nominated by their peers, administrators or supervisors. There is no minimum requirement for years of educational experience to be qualified for the Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year.

Recognition

The Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year will serve for one school year as an ambassador of the A+ Schools Program. (This ambassador role will vary according to the recipient's availability.) The recipient will be recognized on the A+ Schools website, in a press release and will receive a plaque as well as Crayola products for use in his/her school. The 2017 recipient will be invited to attend the N.C. Center for the Advancement of Teaching's (NCCAT) Teacher Leadership Institute in Ocracoke with other N.C. Teachers of the Year.

Nomination/Application Process

Educators who wish to apply for the sixth annual Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award are asked to submit the following:

1. Nominee application form.
2. Letter of recommendation (by someone other than nominee) that addresses the A+ qualities exemplified by the nominee.
3. Curriculum vitae/resume of no more than three pages.
4. A first-person statement from the nominee on the value of learning through the arts, the importance of the A+ Essentials and philosophy, and what makes an outstanding A+ educator. Nominees should include how their beliefs are demonstrated in their personal teaching style (max. of 500 words).
5. Written description of two or three of the nominee's successful projects, lesson plans or other school-related efforts that embody and incorporate arts integration, collaboration and/or other A+ philosophies. Nominees are encouraged to provide photos, student work, videos or other visual materials to help demonstrate the success of their work.
6. Two photos: a headshot of the nominee and an image that shows the nominee in action with students or other educators (both submitted as .jpg files).

To submit application materials, please send an email to aplusschools@ncdcr.gov with “A+ Educator of the Year” and the nominee’s name in the subject line.

To this email, please attach:

- Completed nominee application
- CV/resume
- Required personal statement
- Required essay
- Two JPEG photos

Applications must be submitted via email to aplusschools@ncdcr.gov and must be received no later than 11:59 p.m. on Wednesday, April 12, 2017.

Following the selection process, the Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award winner will be announced at the spring quarterly A+ webinar on Thursday, May 4, from 4 to 5 p.m.

Sponsors of the sixth annual Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award:

For more information

Please contact Jennifer Huggins, A+ Schools Program Coordinator, at (919) 807-6520 or jennifer.huggins@ncdcr.gov with any questions about the application process for the Gerry D. Howell A+ Educator of the Year Award, or visit the A+ Schools website at <http://aplus-schools.ncdcr.gov>.

A+ Schools Program
of the North Carolina Arts Council